Friuli Colli Orientali Bianco 2016

Denominazione di Origine Controllata

Having travelled extensively around the wine countries of Europe (and beyond) to study vines and soil, Gianni Menotti returned to his home of Friuli to make this very special white wine.

Made to be the fullest expression of the marlstone hills of Friuli, near the Slovenian border, a blend of Friulano (28%), Pinot Bianco (40%), Sauvignon Blanc (30%) and Riesling Renano (2%). Each of the varieties from vines that are 35–45 years old, the first three, characteristic of Friuli, defining the aromas, and the Riesling Renano adding a hint of salty dryness. The Sauvignon Blanc is aged in steel, the other three in barriques and tonneaux.
